Chalk Talk

On April 26, chalk artist Ginger Himes presented a program during which she read a favorite scripture and then played some favorite and beautiful hymns while she created (effortlessly, or so it seemed to us) the beautiful picture which now graces our dining room wall at Ridgmont

Resident Spotlight

Donna Matheson

This month on June 10th, we will wish Donna a very happy birthday. Donna has been a member of the Ridgmont family for just over 9 years.

Donna was born in and has been a lifelong resident of Ridgway. She has two brothers and one sister.

Donna graduated from high school, but she had started working at age 16. Through the years, Donna has shared with us stories of her time working at Stackpole in St. Marys. Donna was also the tax collector for the Borough of Ridgway for many years. She always shares a story or two with anyone who has the time.

Donna was very active in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Ridgway and was also a member of the Ida Rebecca White Shrine of Ridgway for many years. If you ask Donna what she would like to sing, her first choice will always be "God Bless America." A quote Donna has shared with us was something she was taught by her parents: "Your day is what you make it."

Spring Activities

On April 19th Ridgmont held a tea to recognize our Volunteers. Each volunteer was presented with a gift basket that conveyed the message that the residents and staff at Ridgmont appreciate them and the "seeds of kindness" that they plant. The tea opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and singing of God Bless America. Administrator Alexis met, welcomed and thanked the volunteers. The tea was planned and presented by Amy and Suanne, our activities team.

Easter Bunny was a little bit late but when he came, he brought lots of fun and smiles to the residents and Staff who had an egg hunt and played games during his visit
