JANUARY 2021

*The new year stands before us,
like a chapter in a book,
waiting to be written.
~ Melody Beattie*

Snapshot in History:

On January 1, 1863, legal status under federal law of more than 3.5 million enslaved African Americans was changed from enslaved to FREE thanks to the Emancipation Proclamation that was issued by President Abraham Lincoln in September 1862.

The Proclamation wrote:

That on the first day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State, or designated part of a State, the people where of shall then be in rebellion against the United States shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free; and the executive government of the united States, including them military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom.
