AnamCara to Perform July 15

Band AnamCara will join us for our Happy Hour on July 15th. AnamCara is made up of five women from the Clarion Area who enjoy playing Celtic, folk and old-time music. The group blends vocal harmonies with an unusual assortment of instruments including harp, banjo, hammered dulcimer, bodhran, recorder, melodica, harmonium and more.

AnamCara is the old Gaelic term for "soul friend," "Anam" meaning soul and

"Cara" meaning friend. The five members of AnamCara are Phyllis Howard, Billie Schwab, Pam Cyphert, Catherine Petrissans and Carolyn Schiffouer. AnamCara has performed at Clarion's Autumn Leaf Festival, as part of Clarion University's Cultural Night, at WRC's Highland Oaks and Edgewood Heights facilities, as well as performed at private weddings, benefits, and fundraisers.

Get ready for an afternoon of fun and live music! Remember to bring your mask and practice social distancing.

This event is subject to change, based on current COVID-19 regulations.
